

Chulalongkorn University Delegation 2008 Profile

Sarah Elsing (Head Delegate)

Date of birth: 2nd December 1984 in Frankfurt am Main
Major: Southeast Asian Studies M.A.
In Germany: Cultural Anthropology,
Political Science, Sociology
Year: 4
English Proficiency: Excellent

University Activities: Sarah was part of the Westfälische Wilhelms-University (Münster, Germany) Delegation at WorldMUN 2007 in Geneva, representing Canada in the UNDP. She has further been chosen to act as Vice-Director of the Security Council at Münster University International Model United Nations in 2008.

International Experience: Sarah grew up bilingually with German and English, living and going to school in Germany, USA, Japan and Australia. She is currently studying in Bangkok, Thailand for one semester as part of her studies' specialization in Münster, Germany. She has done internships in several international relations offices of organizations within Germany as well as in Thailand.

During her time at Chulalongkorn University, she would like to give its students a chance to share the WorldMUN experience with her at next year's conference in Puebla, Mexico.

Siriwan Limsakul

Date of birth: 13th November 1986 in Phuket, Thailand
Major: International Relations
Year: 3
English Proficiency: Excellent

University Activities: Siriwan participated in many activities during her study in Chulalongkorn University. In freshmen year (2005), she was head of treasury division for freshmen and treasury to the 62nd Chulalongkorn-Thammasat Traditional football Grand opening ceremony. During Sophomore year (2006), she was head of secretariat to Political Science Faculty Student Committee and Head of Administrative division coordinator for Fund raising and Public relations for the 4th Political Science fair. Furthermore, she participates in the upcoming Chulalongkorn University International Conference (CUIC, Economic Panel).

International Experiences: Siriwan has been to The United States of America during spring of 2006 and 2007 for Work and Travel program and she experienced traveling around some important cities in the United States such as Washington D.C., New York and Philadelphia. During her study in Chulalongkorn University, she has special interest in international affairs especially the United Nations. Therefore she would like to participate in the next WorldMUN conference in the year 2008 at Puebla, Mexico.

Keingchon Amnueysit

Date of birth : 1st November 1986 in Pithsanulok, Thailand
Major: International Relation, Political Science
Year: 3
English Proficiency: Excellent

University Activities: Keingchon was part of 4th Political Science fair staff, as Head of Political Question-Answer Program, in Faculty of Political Science, Chulalongkorn University (2006). He also has been Player of Political Science's Basketball Club and Football Club since 2004. Furthermore, he always attends faculty's and University's activities in many chances.

International Experience: Keingchon experienced visiting in Laughlin City, Nevada, USA for 3 months in 2006. He went to the US as internship student, working with two restaurants and gaining new experiences by travelling there. He also has been in Kuala-Lumper, Malaysia for Bagpipers-Show, as Bagpipers Player, for a week in 2004. During his time at Chulalongkorn University, he would like to share the WorldMUN experience at next year's conference in Puebla, Mexico.

Ploysong Chaichoochote

Date of birth: 16th March 1987 in Bangkok
Major: International Relations, Political Science
Year: 3
English Proficiency: Excellent

University Activities: Ploysong has been participated in many of her faculty's activities. In 2005, she had a gold medal by playing Water Polo for her faculty in the Freshy Games' 05. She was a staff of the 5th and 6th Political Science Youth Camp, and was selected to be a vice-president of the 7th Political Science Youth Camp, in 2007.

International Experience: Ploysong had been to United States of America, in grade 9, she studied at Solebury School, Pennsylvania. In 2007, she worked at fastfood restaurants ; Wendy's and Chick-Fil-A, later after she finished her work, she traveled around with her friend. She was a staff at World Allergy Congress 2007, held by World Allergy Organization. She would love to have international experience as much as she can and one of that is going to be at next year's WorldMUN conference in Puebla, Mexico.

Penjai Sinsamersuk

Date of birth: 21st April 1987 in Bangkok
Major: International Relations, Political Science
Year: 3
English Proficiency: Excellent, TOEFL IBT: 87 from 120

University Activities: Penjai has attained First Year Students' Sport Days as a Petanque player, also has been one of the student committees in making decision on student activities.

International Experience: Penjai has been exchange student twice in her high school years. First time she went to Australia for 6 weeks in year 2001 while she was in grade 9th and the second time to Costa Rica for 1 year in year 2003-2004 while she was in grade 11th. Both times she went with AFS programme. Furthermore, she has attained an international conference held by Girl Guide in Tokyo, Japan in year 2004 on the topic of water pollution.